

Native Plants

Provide Wildlife Habitat and Pollinator Support

Native Plants and their cultivars benefit wildlife and pollinators by providing nectar, pollen, and cover. Your landscape will come alive with natural beauty.

Sun:

- Asclepias incarnata-
- Asclepias tuberosa-
- Baptisia australis-
- Chelone glabra-
- Eupatorium dubium or fistulosum-
- Coreopsis verticillata-
- Helenium autumnale-
- Liatris spicata-
- Lobelia cardinalis-
- Monarda didyma-
- Oenothera fruticosa-
- Penstemon digitalis-
- Phlox subulata-
- Solidago-
- Symphotrichum-

Swamp Milkweed
Butterfly Weed
False Blue Indigo
White Turtlehead
Joe Pye Weed
Threadleaf Coreopsis
Sneezeweed
Gayfeather
Cardinal Flower
Beebalm
Sundrops
Beardtongue
Creeping Phlox
Goldenrod
New England Aster

Shade:

- Aquilegia canadensis-
- Lobelia siphilitica-
- Itea virginica-
- Ilex verticillata-
- Ilex opaca-
- Polemonium reptans-
- Polygonatum biflorum-
- Tradescantia virginiana-
- Tiarella cordifolia-
- Mertensia virginica-

Columbine
Great Blue Lobelia
Virginia Sweet Spire
Winterberry
American Holly
Jacob's Ladder
Solomon's Seal
Spiderwort
Foamflower
Virginia Bluebells

Good Earth Garden Market

11650 Falls Road | Potomac, MD 20854 | 301.765.0224
www.gegardenmarket.com

